Once you are on Lake Wohlford Road, you will turn on to Guejito Road. There are signs to Hidden Valley Retreat on this turn.

After 1 mile, bear right on Old Guejito Grade Road.

After 0.7 miles you'll see a round mirror, a big sign for the Hidden Valley Ashram, and a street sign for Melrose Ranch Road, and a very straight dirt road at which you will turn left (it's called Melrose Ranch Road, not to be confused with the Melrose Ranch sign you already passed).

This 0.9 mile long road can get bumpy in some places, but stay straight and you will find the ranch, marked of course, with black metal bird address sign as the road comes to a T at the end.

Enter through the grey gravel driveway and you will find plenty of parking. Cellphone service can be spotty once you turn down Guejito road, but if you get lost please text or call us at:
